The Grand Result!

OHIO 23,600 REPUBLICAN MAJORITY!

PENNSYLVANIA 15,000 REPUBLICAN MAJORITY!

INDIANA 10,000 REPUBLICAN MAJORITY!

The returns received yesterday, by telegraph of the elections on Tuesday, all tend to confirm the GLORIOUS TIDINGS which we gave to our readers yesterday morning. After a tremendous contest, and in the face of the united opposition of the DOUGLAS, BELL and BRECKINRIDGE forces, the Republicans have swept all three States,—OHIO, PENNSYLVANIA and INDIANA, by overwhelming majorities. Not only have they carried their State tickets by most decisive votes, but they have secured three-fourths of the members of Congress elect, and large majorities in the respective State Legislatures.

The triumph, in a word, is complete and settles, beyond all peradventure, the issue of the Preidential contest. LINCOLN and HAMLIN, there is no further question, will carry every Free State, with the possible exception of California, next month, and thus be the choice of a majority of the People for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States. That the country will have abundant and abiding reason to rejoice in this change, we do not entertain a doubt. A brighter day dawns upon the Republic. Let every true man in Wisconsin gird himself for the eventful contest and march to the field with the inspiriting watchwords,

LINCOLN AND VICTORY!

The Question Settled.

The N. Y. Herald, chief organ of the "Fusion" and "Union-saving" movement in New York, and the most persistent and vindictive opponent of the Republican party and its principles, in its issue of Monday last—the day before PENNSYLVANIA voted—thus circularly spoke:

THE IMPENDING PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION AND ITS MOMENTOUS CONSEQUENCES.—It is now generally conceded that in Pennsylvania the election of Tuesday, the 9th instant, will determine the issue of the Presidential contest. There are but two parties in this local struggle—the Republican, or People's party, and the Union or fusion party—and the battle will be between Curtin, the Republican, and Foster, the Fusion candidate for Governor. Both sides now claim the victory—the Republicans by from ten to twenty thousand majority, and their opponents by from five to ten thousand; from which it will be perceived that the margin of confidence, at least, is largely on the Republican side.

On both sides the overwhelming importance of this election of the Governor is fully understood, and consequently, rain or shine, the largest vote which the State will have ever polled may be expected. Should Curtin be elected by a majority exceeding five thousand, all hopes of turning the popular tide in the short interval to the 6th of November may as well be relinquished, for the election of Lincoln will be a foregone conclusion. The decisive loss of Pennsylvania will paralyze the conservative Union movement in New Jersey and New York, and Lincoln will walk over the course.

We hail the omen and accept the prophecy. Not PENNSYLVANIA alone, but OHIO and INDIANA have declared for Freedom—The battle is won. It only remains for the FREEMEN of the United States to record the fact, by their votes, in November next. Let no REPUBLICAN fail to do his duty!

"THE MOURNERS GO ABOUT THE STREETS."—The most disconsolate set of people we ever saw were the DOUGLAS Democrats, yesterday. They had counted confidently on PENNSYLVANIA and INDIANA, and had some faint hope of carrying OHIO.—When, therefore, the news burst upon them that all these States had gone heavily for the Republicans, their feelings can be more easily imagined than described. The BRECKINRIDGE men were jubilant over the fact that they had carried Florida; and the ELL men made merry on general principles.—But the followers of DOUGLAS refused to be comforted. Their grief was too great for utterance; and they drowned it in ——.

WON'T SUBMIT TO LINCOLN.—The Atlanta (Ga) Southern Confederacy, says:

The South will never permit Abraham Lincoln to be President of the United States. This is the determination of all persons at the South. And let the consequences be what they may—whether the Potomac be crimsoned in human gore, and Pennsylvania Avenue is paved ten fathoms in depth with mangled bodies, or whether the last vestige of liberty is swept from the face of the American continent—the South, the loyal South, the constitutional South, will never submit to such humiliation and degradation as the inauguration of Abraham Lincoln.

The Confederacy is a rampant DOUGLAS organ, but though so fierce for dissolution now, it will calm down rapidly, as soon as LINCOLN is elected, and submit gracefully to the inevitable result.

ELECTION IN DELAWARE.—An election for county officers was held throughout the State of Delaware on Tuesday last, which resulted, says the Wilmington Gazette, in the complete success of the candidates who are identified with the Breckinridge party.—The following was the vote in Wilmington for Assessor:

Wards.	Breck. Smith.	Douglas. Todd.	Bell. Armstrong.	Lincoln. Flynn
1	102	92	65	55
2	111	52	77	53
3	115	87	101	139
4	114	43	139	126
5	61	6	25	56
Total	503	213	407	433

IT WILL BE remembered that the Madison Patriot charged upon Gov. RANDALL the consequence of the loss of the Lady Elgin. We now notice that a German Democratic orator in Ohio, stated in his speech that "the falling of the Pemberton Mill in Massachusetts last spring, was chargeable to the Republican party." That is going a little too far, we should say; but a fall is in prospect for which the Republicans do propose to be held responsible, namely, the fall of Democracy and Bell Everettism.

A SON OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN recently spent a few days at the White Mountains. While there, a very enthusiastic demonstration was made, giving him a reception as the "Prince of Rails." A procession was formed to escort the "Prince," and speeches were made, to which he made a happy reply. They say that for story telling and wit, he is a chip of the old rail

SUDDEN DEATH OF A STRANGER.—A middle aged man, a German, of respectable appearance, arrived in this city by the Illinois Central train from St. Louis, on Monday evening, and took a lodging at a small public house, No. 1 River street. He was evidently in feeble health. Yesterday morning he asked some one about the house to get him an express wagon to take him to the Milwaukee depot. Before the wagon arrived he suddenly fell from his chair and died instantly.—Coroner James held an inquest. It was evident from the appearance of the body that the deceased had been in the last stages of consumption, and this was the natural termination of his disease. A verdict was rendered accordingly upon him, as an unknown man He was well dressed, and had a full carpet bag with him. A search of the latter induces the belief that his name was Wolfgang Senn, that he had been in Kansas, and was on his way to Ashford, Wisconsin, about thirty miles from Milwaukee, when death overtook him. His effects are in charge of Coroner James. Wisconsin papers please copy.—Chicago Press and Tribune Oct, 10.

The Prince of Wales.

Special Despatch to the N. Y. Times

WASHINGTON, Oct 8.

After an early breakfast the Prince rode out on horseback as far as Georgetown Heights, which he examined, with great interest, the cemetery and the surrounding grounds. The President and Cabinet conveyed the Prince and suite, with Mr. Buchanan and the invited guests, to the Harriet Lane, which was beautifully decorated, and bore the British flag at the main. After she had started, salutes were fired from the Navy Yard and the Arsenal, which were returned by the cutter. The Marine Band accompanied the party, and added much to the pleasure of the day.

When the party arrived at Mt. Vernon they were met by the Superintendent, and conducted with an absurd formality to the house, into every nook and corner of which the party penetrated, manifesting the greatest interest in everything. The key of the Bastile was a peculiar object of interest, and elicited a short discourse from the Earl St. Germains for the benefit of the Prince, who seemed more interested in the fascinations of Miss Lane, than in the terrible reminiscences of the key.

In formal procession, headed by the President, on whose arm leaned the Prince, they marched through the winding pathway to the tomb of Washington, before which they halted, with uncovered heads. There were no incidents of interest beyond what would occur at the visit of any party of people—The usual peepings, questions and remarks were made, and the gathering of relics was engaged in. Sir Henry Holland cut for himself a cane, and the rest were provided with sticks from the ample collection which is always kept for the benefit of visitors.

A beautiful lunch had been provided, of which all partook, and at which numerous complimentary toasts were given.

The return trip was made in remarkably quick time, and the landing of the party was greeted with salutes as at the embarkation. Mr. Buchanan informed Secretary Cobb that he considered himself comm nder of the craft, and that he outranked both him and Mr. Schell; but Miss Lane thought she had the highest claim to the position, and was voted flag-officer unanimously.

After a change of dress the whole party adjourned to the residence of Lord Lyons, who gave a grand dinner in honor of the Prince, who sustained the ordeal with becoming dignity—he having the good sense to hold his tongue when he had nothing to say. At a late hour the dinner party broke up, rode home, and was serenaded by the Marine Band.

To morrow the Harriet Lane will convey the Prince and suite as far as Acquia Creek, where they will take the cars for Richmond, at which place they hope to arrive in time to see a great slave sale which takes place in the afternoon.

Mr. Sheldon, the gentleman who so hospitably entertained Lord Napier, has invited the Prince and friends to visit his plantation, some little distance from the city, and witness the workings and effects of the "domestic institution." The Prince has accepted the invitation, and will do his best to see it all. He has also been invited to visit and inspect the University of Virginia, and the home of Jefferson at Monticello. Special trains have been placed at his disposal, and great efforts will be made to detain him beyond the time prescribed in the programme. A grand ball will be given to-morrow at Richmond, and the country has been ransacked for all the belles, that a favorable impression may be produced on the youthful heart.

A great portion of the suite visited the Smithsonian Institute this afternoon, and were shown its curiosities by Prof. Baird.—The Marquis of Chandos with his lady spent a long time at the Observatory, and they were entertained by Lieut. Maury.

The wonderful beauty and architectural symmetry of the public buildings here have elicited from the Prince of Newcastle, the most unbounded admiration, and plans of the Treasury, Post Office, and Patent Office departments, have been furnished him for future reference.

The Harriet Lane has been ordered to Amboy, for the purpose of conveying the Prince to New York, at which point he will arrive at two o'clock on Wednesday next.

The Female Institute, at which the Prince played tea-plus yesterday, has been besieged to-day by all sorts and conditions of people. Miss Smith, the proprietress, is already a lioness of the first water. I called there today, and found four reporters getting items, and Frank Leslie's artist making a sketch of the alley.

The Prince expresses himself as delighted with the reception he has met, the entertainment he has received, and the genial and hearty manners of his host and his accomplished niece.

THE BANNER COUNTY.—Pierce county has began to show to the world the unbounded riches buried in her soil; her wealth has been discovered, and ere long the news of it will reach the ears of many a seeker after just such treasure, and her growing population will develope her hidden wealth. For three succeeding years has this county, under the auspices of the Agricultural Society, taken more premiums on grain, seeds and vegetables than any other county in the State, and we believe that no State in the Union can excel Wisconsin in this branch of Agriculture. The systematical effort of our county society this year to try titles with other counties for the name of the best agricultural county in the State which it has gained, has resulted in a complete triumph; the laurels of victory fairly won have been passed over, and now the prize banner of the State Agricultural Society, the highest, most enviable honor that could be bestowed upon any county, belongs to Pierce county. People of Pierce county, shall we not feel proud over the tribute to our county? May we not feel an honorable pride over this triumph? Or rather gratitude, for we did not make the soil or climate, and we should believe in this respect that surely "God hath not dealt so with any people."

This is a gala day for Pierce county—let it always be remembered; for years to come, that Banner, like a crown of victory, preserved among the archives of the Agricultural Society, will remind the thousand farmers how much the industry of the pioneers did to place county in her true position among other portions of the West.—Prescott (Pierce Co.) Transcript, Oct. 6.

A NOBLE ACT.—The Fireman's Benevolent Society, of Chicago, recently sent a draft to the father of our late Chief Engineer, to pay the funeral expenses. Our own Association had a meeting, on Tuesday evening, and finding such to be the fact, very properly concluded that it would be doing injustice to their brother Firemen of Chicago to have the draft accepted, and returned a unanimous vote of thanks to their brethren of Chicago, with instructions to their Secretary to return the draft. They then voted that our department pay the whole expenses of the funeral of our late Chief, amounting to about ninety dollars. They also voted to pay into the hands of H. L. PAGE, Treasurer of the Lady Elgin fund, one hundred dollars for the benefit of the sufferers of the late calamity, besides allowing sums varying from ten to thirty dollars to the widows of members of the department, who were lost by the disaster. Surely such deeds will be remembered.

BODY FOUND.—The body of a woman was found washed ashore on the beach, one mile north of Amsterdam, between Port Washington and Sheboygan. About five feet eight inches high; dress in good condition; had on a skeleton skirt; striped white and blue delaine dress; high heeled shoes; age could not be told on account of decomposition.—On the body was found a fancy portmonnaie, containing a "ony" dollar bill and five American quarters.

Any other information in the possession of the undersigned, will be freely given by addressing CHARLES FRENCH, Cedar Grove P. O., Wisconsin.

BODY FOUND.—A body was found floating in the lake on Tuesday, about a mile north of the North Point, by D. O'HEARN, and brought on shore at the foot of Detroit street. The body is described as follows:—Drab cassimere pants with stripes, wore a galvanized watch, black ribbon, brass key, heavy striped cotton undershirt, elastic gaiters, white cotton socks, small white handle knife, wallet, nothing in it, black coat, printed cotton shirt and cotton drawers.

ANNIVERSARY MEETING.—The second anniversary meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, will be held in the Plymouth Church this (Thursday) evening at half-past seven o'clock. Rev. Mr. CORNING will deliver an address on the occasion, which, it is needless to say, will of itself give interest to the meeting, and when we add the fact that the report of the doings of the Association for the past year will be read, we feel warranted in assuring the public, that by their attendance they will ensure an evening of pleasure and profit.

THE FREE DEMOCRAT has paid a fitting tribute to Mr. DONSCHEN, the editor of the Atlas, in this city. Mr. D. is one of the most eloquent German orators we ever listened to, and he flourishes a ready pen. We can fully endorse all that the Free Democrat says. Our neighbor over the way is doing a good work in the war for Freedom, and deserves the liberal support of Liberty-loving citizens in the North-west.

THE PAPER EMPORIUM.—NOONAN & MCNAB have one of the largest paper warehouses in the city. Some idea of the extent of their business may be formed from the fact that they are sending paper of their own manufacture all over the North-west. A recent examination of their stock, under the care of our friend CASSIN, fully corroborates all we have heard of this establishment.

THE NEWS FROM INDIANA seems to operate like an opiate on our Democratic friends. We sincerely hope, however, that DOUGLAS will not give up his engagement in Milwaukee.

OUR WIDE-AWAKES.—The Milwaukee Wide-Awakes, under the command of PETER VAN VECHTEN, (No. 1's old and honored Foreman) and HENRY A. STARR (a genuine typo) returned from their excursion to Waukesha, about midnight, Tuesday. As they marched across the Spring Street Bridge, with band playing, banner displayed and torches brightly burning, they were met by a deputation of Republicans from the SENTINEL office, who appriesed them of the glorious tidings from OHIO, PENNSYLVANIA and INDIANA.

Thereupon, our Wide-Awakes gave "three times three" for each of the three great States which had so emphatically declared for LINCOLN, LIBERTY and RIGHT; and then, marching to their head-quarters, adjourned for the night, with another round of rousing cheers for our cause and candidates.

Enthusiastic Republican Meeting at Waukesha.

On Tuesday evening a rousing meeting was gotten up at Waukesha.

The Milwaukee Wide Awakes to the number of seventy-five, attended the gathering

Speeches were made by HALBERT E PAINE, J. B. D. COGSWELL, GEO. GODFREY and J. A. PHELPS. There was a large gathering of Republicans, and judging from the enthusiasm manifested this stirring town intends to do its best for the county ticket.

WHAT SHOULD BE DONE—OUR WIDE AWAKE CLUB.—Many times have I intended to take up my pen and present to the Republicans of this city the necessity of a larger company of Wide-Awakes than we now have, but have refrained, in the hope that more potent voices than mine should speak through the columns of your journal. When I have seen the Wide-Awakes out on parade, equipped in their showy and useful uniforms, the thought has always been foremost, what would be the effect of a thousand men in line, if so few in numbers attract so much attention. Yes, Republicans of Milwaukee, there should be one thousand active members of the Wide-Awake Club in this city. No organization can wield an influence so powerful as this, and none is more needed to increase the ardor of the Freemen of this city.

In other cities than this the duties of Wide Awakes are not imposed alone upon the mechanic, or laborer, or clerk, but the lawyer, the merchant, the professor, and all the intelligent classes, put their energies to work for the success of the strongest political organization ever brought into a campaign This should be the case in this city. Let our leading citizens of all vocations, who sympathize with us not only in national, but in local politics, come forward, join the W A's, and raise it to the rank of the first battalion on the field in this State. I would farther urge upon the Wide Awakes themselves a more perfect knowledge of military tactics, as we shall have hot work by the ides of November. Thus far there has been but little enthusiasm on either side in this county, and for this reason, I presume, less interest has been taken in the Wide Awakes. But the thunder tones coming from Pennsylvania, over Ohio and Indiana, will arouse the friends of the Constitution, the Union, and LINCOLN to unwonted efforts. Let the ball roll on until it sweeps over every city and county in the West, if it be the will of the people. G.

AT A MEETING of the Board of Trustees of the Milwaukee Fire Department, held on the 9th inst., the following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Owing to a collision upon Lake Michigan Sept. 8th, whereby the Steamer Lady Elgin was sunk and about three hundred of our fellow citizens, (Firemen and Milwaukeeans), were lost upon that mournful occasion, therefore,

Resolved, That words would be inadequate to express our heartfelt sorrow for the surviving relatives of our lamented worthy Trustee and Ex-Engineer, P. H. Kreuton; our late 3d Assistant, A. Williams; Trustee, F. McCormick, and many others attached to the Department; we mourn with them, inasmuch as we have lost valuable members of the Department with whom we loved to labor shoulder to shoulder, in fighting the devouring element at every sound of the alarm bell.

Resolved, That the unanimous thanks of this Department be and are hereby tendered, to our brother Firemen of Chicago, as well as to the citizens generally of that city; also to the citizens of Racine, Kenosha, Waukegan, Winetka and Evanston, for their God-like and brotherly acts towards our citizens in their hour of distress; from our inmost souls we thank them.

Resolved, That the sum of one hundred dollars be appropriated from the funds of this Department for the relief of the sufferers of the Lady Elgin calamity, and the Secretary is instructed to draw an order for the amount in favor of H. L. PAGE, the Treasurer of the Fund.

Resolved, That the city papers be requested to publish the above proceedings.

W. HENRY HOLLAND, Pres't.
H. MIDDLETON, Sec'y.

ANOTHER BODY FOUND.—The body of an unknown man was found in the Milwaukee river at half-past six o'clock yesterday morning. It was thought that foul play had been used; but after a post mortem examination by Drs. WELLS and DOUSMAN, it was concluded to be a case of accidental drowning.

The body had on Kentucky jean pants; about thirty-six years old. The body had been in the water so long as to make identification impossible.

Considerable excitement existed in the Third Ward at one time, on account of a rumor that the man had been murdered.

FOURTH WARD REPUBLICAN MEETING.—The Republicans of the Fourth Ward meet to-night, at Plankinton's Hall, to nominate a candidate for the Assembly. We trust that our "Wide Awake" friends of the Fourth will all be on hand, and select a candidate whose name will lend strength to the Republican ticket, and whose services will do credit to the Republicans of the Fourth Ward.

SOUND!—CALEB WALL, our City Auctioneer, had the following encouraging notice conspicuously posted on his bulletin yesterday:

REAL ESTATE ADVANCING!
OHIO, INDIANA, PENNSYLVANIA,
GONE FOR LINCOLN!

CALEB is a BRECKINRIDGE man, but can't stand the pressure of the LINCOLN rush.

SUMMERFIELD M. E. CHURCH.—We understand that the Summerfield M E. Church is to be favored with the labors of Rev. Mr. WILSON, of Pittsburgh, who is spoken of as a very eloquent and zealous preacher, of more than ordinary power. The appointment is a good one, and will add much to the strength of their church.

INQUEST.—At an inquest held on the body of JOHN BOHAN, who was run over near A. SMITH'S elevator, on Saturday evening, by the engine John C. Wright, the verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to his death through his own carelessness, and that the Railroad company are exonerated from all blame in the matter.

JOHN B. GOUGH.—We learn that JOHN B. GOUGH, the eloquent Temperance lecturer, is to visit the West in December next.—His appointments are made through Mr. E. S. WELLS, of Chicago, to whom applications should be addressed.

JOHN HAMILTON, a lad about thirteen years of age, left the Young Men's Association rooms on Saturday night, and has not been heard from since. He was employed in the library room, and well known to most of the visitors there.

EMIGRATION.—We noticed yesterday, a party of forty-two Norwegian emigrants, en route for Minnesota. The indefati guble BILLY had them in charge, and sent them forward via the La Crosse Railroad.

OPENING OF FALL AND WINTER STYLES.—Mrs. DUNN opens her fall and winter styles of bonnets on Thursday, Oct. 11th, at her new store, No. 18 Wisconsin street.

ACCIDENT.—We understand that a lady was seriously injured by being thrown from a buggy, yesterday on Main street. The horse having become unmanageable.

IT IS A JUST CAUSE of complaint that the most frequented part of Main street is unlit by gas.

THE CITIZENS up by the round house want a school, and they should have it.

RAIN.—A slow rain set in yesterday, and continued through the afternoon.

KINDLY DONE.—The party from this city who went to Ozaukee, on Saturday last, to bring back the remains of ALEXANDER CORBITT, one of the victims of the Lady Elgin, were met by Neptune Fire Company of Thiensville, who joined them in paying the last tribute of respect to their deceased brother fireman, and took friendly care of those from Milwaukee, who came on that sad errand. The Thiensville Company is composed of Germans, who deserve all credit for this manifestation of neighborly kindness and sympathy.

MESSRS. JOHN NAZRO & CO., have for sale the celebrated "DIXON" prepared "Carbonate of Iron" stove polish. It requires less labor and will retain its brilliancy much longer than any now in use. Try it and see if the above is true. It out-sells any other make and it stands at the head of all other stove polish. Messrs. NAZRO & Co., sell Seabury, Sullivan's and other makes, but they sell twenty gross of DIXON'S to one of any other make, which is an evidence of its popularity.

REPUBLICAN SALUTE.—The artillery squad of the "Wide-Awakes," got out their gun, the John F. Potter, last evening, and fired sixty-three times—once each for every electoral vote of the three Republican States, PENNSYLVANIA, OHIO, and INDIANA.

NOT FOUND.—The rumor that Captain BARRY'S body had been found, turns out to be unfounded. The body supposed to be his, proved to be that of another member of the ill fated Union Guards.

READ CALEB WALL'S ADVERTISEMENTS this morning. A great chance to purchase one of the best mills in the State at a sacrifice. Read all his advertisements; there is some news in them.

MY BEST THANKS are tendered to the members of the Fire Companies, and to all other persons why so manfully worked to save my property and to extinguish the fire that broke out yesterday, at noon, in the house on Vliet and Sixth streets.

WHAT THE WORKING MEN SAY!

ALLEGHANY COUNTY TO HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON GREETING!

At Pittsburg, a few days since, HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON, the DOUGLAS candidate for the Vice Presidency, addressing the people of that busy city on the beauties of Democracy, thus taunted the working classes who make up so large a proportion of its thrifty population:

"LOOK AT THE SLAVES IN YOUR WORKSHOPS! THEY ARE DRIVEN TO THE POLL AT THE BECK OF THEIR MASTERS UNDER PENALTY OF BEING DISCHARGED!"

Shouts of indignant denial burst from the crowd at this false and unmanly accusation. It rankled in the hearts of the mechanics and working men of Alleghany, and they burned for the opportunity to refute the slander and rebuke the slanderer at the polls. How well they did the work—let the result on Tuesday tell! Alleghany county sends greeting to HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON, DOUGLAS candidate for Vice President from "THE SLAVES IN HER WORKSHOPS," SEVEN THOUSAND REPUBLICAN MAJORITY!

It is quite clear that Mr. JOHNSON, with all his "capital," does not "own" that "Labor." Let him listen again in November, and he will hear more of the same sort.

Land Sales in Minnesota and Kansas.

The "old public functionary," whose political sands are fast running out, has improved a last opportunity to deal a cruel blow to Free Labor in Minnesota and Kansas. Our National Democratic Administration owes both Kansas and Minnesota a "grudge," and is bent upon paying it off. Accordingly, though the people in both States are impoverished by hard times and have not the wherewithal at present to pay for the Homesteads they have entered and improved, Mr. BUCHANAN has ordered the sale of millions of acres of the public lands during the current and next month. There is no public necessity for this step, and very strong reasons of public policy against it.

The people, moreover, both in Kansas and Minnesota, have earnestly protested against the sale and plead for delay. But Mr. BUCHANAN has no ears for the voice of the Free West; no sympathy for the struggles of Free Labor; no regard for the interests of the early settlers and enterprising pioneers of the Border States. So he decrees that the sales must go on.

We heard, while in Kansas and Minnesota, during our visit there a fortnight ago, that hundreds of honest, hard working men, who had pre-empted and improved their farms, must lose them, under the Executive decree, unless they could get help from friends, or loan money at exorbitant rates, to pay their claims. This is, indeed, a hard case, and affords another illustration of Democratic love for FREE LABOR and the FREE WEST.

"Cheering Up."

In place of any comments on the election returns from Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, the News of yesterday encourages its readers with an extract from the letter of "an intelligent and shrewd" correspondent, who writes "confidentially," that the great "Wide-Awake" parade in New York, last week, was "really a failure," and that he "now believes LINCOLN will be defeated in the State." The News thinks this opinion "deeply significant;" and, on the strength of it, proceeds to "cheer up" and affectionately entreats its Democratic brethren to do likewise. Far be it from us to add to the deep affliction under which Sham-Democracy now labors by intimating any doubt of the correctness of the News' information. On the contrary, we trust that the faithful will swallow the story without doubt, or scruple; in the hope that it may stimulate them to some show of fight in the Presidential election. Otherwise we are likely to have but a dull time next month. By all means let the News and the Democracy "cheer up."—It is a good time, as Mark Tapley would say, for them to be "jolly."

The More Fusion the Worse Defeat.

The Albany Journal, thinks that if the DOUGLASITES in that State had made a straightout manly fight, LINCOLN's majority might have been not more than 50,000, but since their amalgamation with "Disunionists" and Know-Nothings, it will reach 70,000 at least. This corroborates Gov. SEWARD's prediction that the more anti-Republican factions fuse the worse they will be whipped. The majority against them is more likely to go over one hundred thousand than seventy thousand. Mr. H. S. RANDALL was right when he said the people of New York would never "cuddle under such dirty bed clothes" as the fusionists have prepared for them.

HOW IT IS TO BE DONE.—The Atlanta (Ga.) Confederacy explains the dangers of Lincoln's election, not perhaps very clearly, but still after a fashion, and in terms which remind one of the South Carolinian prophecy that the Republicans will lead the South to abolish slavery of its own accord. They all fear quiet much more than agitation. The Confederacy says, that for two years the Republican administration will be "conservative, but insidious," meantime "coiling its slimy folds around our dearest rights and patriarchal interests; and whilst we (of the South) may be lulled by the charm of a fancied security, the construction of the monster will soon be felt, and ere we can extricate ourselves, death and ignominy will be the result."

The Democratic Candidate for District Attorney.

For the Sentinel.

Tax-payers and all who are opposed to railroad swindles, read. Was JOSHUA STARK (candidate for District Attorney,) in the Legislature in 1856? Let him answer the following questions:

Did he procure the charter of the Milwaukee & Superior R. R. Co.?

Was he one of the stockholders, and principal Directors and Attorney for the Company?

Did the Company lay out the road through some of the best farms in Milwaukee and Granville, to the great injury of said farms?

Did he, as general manager and attorney, cause the damages to be assessed at a very low rate; compelling the farmers to allow their farms to be spoiled for a trifling compensation, and forcing them to appeal to the Circuit Court for redress?

Were those farmers compelled to employ attorneys, to assist them, which cost them, in many instances, as much as they got?

About how many terms of the Court did whole neighborhoods of farmers attend said Court, to get relief for their grievances?

Did JOSHUA STARK, Esq., candidate for District Attorney, act as the attorney and director for said Railroad Company, in all of their cases?

Did that company procure a loan from the City of Milwaukee of $100,000 in Bonds? What security did the city get? Did not those bonds, or the avails, go to pay JOSHUA STARK, Esq, Attorney for the Company, for contesting the claims of the farmers and for other services of his?

How much of the road did they build?

How many hard working men were turned away without pay after the Company got the $100,000 from the city? Who took up the few rails that were put down?

Have the Company paid the interest on the bonds, or has the city to pay, not only the interest but the principal?

Go along the line of the road and see the rich farms mutilated and their beauty destroyed; a contemplated road laid out and fenced through them. Ask those farmers whether they will support the man, or men, who destroyed their farms? Ask the taxpayers of the city whether they are willing to be taxed to pay for such acts. It is said that the Railroad Company were unfortunate. While the officers of the road had the control of the city bonds, and it is believed were prosperous and getting rich, the city who have to pay the bonds were the unfortunates. If this is all honest and fair dealing, then all honest Democrats should support the Railroad Attorney. But if they think the whole transaction dishonest; if they are Democrats and honest men they will withhold their votes from all such men.

A DEMOCRAT.

THE EFFECTS OF DISSOLUTION IN NEW ORLEANS.—The New Orleans Commercial Bulletin declares that a breaking up of the Union "would not only cause their ships to rot at the levee, and bankruptcy and ruin to follow in the train of disasters, but the real estate of New Orleans would not be worth twenty-five cents on the dollar to what it now is; cotton would go down to such a figure that it would not pay to cultivate it; and the pall of general stagnation, the wings of a dreary desolation, would rest upon the land torn by internal dissension, and drenched in civil blood. Mexico is but a faint picture of what our condition would be upon a gigantic scale."

It is needless to add that the New Orleans Bulletin is not one of those Southern presses which think that the election of Mr. LINCOLN would be good cause for immediately dissolving the Union. Indeed, since every day renders more and more certain the success of the Republican party, next month, the Disunionists and Secessionists begin to change their tune, and many of them now say that they will wait for some "overt act," on the part of Mr. LINCOLN, before they take leave of the Union.

"OUR LABRADEE" IN SHEBOYGAN CO.—A prominent Democrat in Sheboygan Co. adds the following P. S. to a business letter:

"Judge LABRADEE's nomination is not in the least acceptable to any Democrats in this part of the District. Several leading Democrats openly oppose him, and many in this county will, to my certain knowledge, when they come to vote, 'quietly' erase his name from the ticket. His nomination is considered to be a great hindrance to our ticket Although I am a Democrat, yet I cannot support our LABRADEE with his ultra southern principles, nor can I vote for SLOAN.

* * * With LABRADEE's name erased I shall, as usual, support the regular Democratic ticket, and ever pray, &c. that DOUGLAS' star may prove to be in the ascendant."

AT THE GREAT DOUGLAS meeting held in Appleton on the 2d inst., and which was addressed by LABRADEE, G. B SMITH, and other big guns, was a wagon in the procession drawn by eight horses, and a Jackass for a leader—a very appropriate figure head. After marching about half way through the main street, a man by the name of HOWARD, from the town of Dale, left the procession and was followed by three or four others, who joined the mass of Republicans assembled on the sidewalk and proposed three hearty cheers for LINCOLN. Mr. H. said he never voted anything but the Democratic ticket, but he was done, as he "didn't like the idea of being associated with, or being led by Jackasses."

A DOUGLAS ELECTOR DECLINES.—Mr. G. W. BLOUNT, elector on the DOUGLAS ticket in North Carolina, apprises the chairman of the State Committee that he resigns his place on the electoral ticket, believing that DOUGLAS cannot carry the State. In a moment of gushing confidence, Mr. BLOUNT farther avows his belief that the BRECKINRIDGE electors "will cast their votes for DOUGLAS if they find their votes will elect him, or throw the election into the House of Representatives."

CONNECTICUT TOWN ELECTIONS.—The Hartford Evening Press contains returns from 124 towns in which elections for local officers have taken place, and the Republicans have been successful in 89, the Democrats (fused) in 32, 1 town divided, and in 2 the contest was not party-wise. In the above returns the Republicans have gained 20 towns and lost 3, being a clear gain of 17.

LETTERS WITH POSTAGE UNPAID DECLARED "DEAD."—The Postmaster General has issued an order that after the 1st of November all unpaid letters will be sent to the dead letter office, the practice of notifying the writers thereof not having the desired effect of preventing their accumulation in the post-offices.

SIGNIFICANT ADMISSION.—The N. Y. Herald, of Monday morning, contains the following pregnant paragraph:

PENNSYLVANIA IS LOST.—Thurlow Weed has gone to the Keystone State to take charge of the election.

We judge, from the returns, that the election was well taken charge of.

SHIPMENTS FROM PRESCOTT.—The Prescott Transcript informs us that the shipments from that handsome and thriving town, for the week ending October 6th, were 9,350 bushels wheat, 350 do. barley, and 50 boxes cranberries—all for Milwaukee.

ONE CONSOLATION LEFT.—A Republican down in one of the "Egyptian" counties recently remarked to a Douglas Democratic leader that the people of that section had commenced to read and to think for themselves, and were in consequence rapidly coming over to the Republican party.

"Yes," replied the Douglas man; "but thank God we have at least four hundred men in this county who can't read, and we may rely on their votes every time."

Will of a Victim of the Lady Elgin Disaster—Endowment for a Kentucky College.

From the Louisville Democrat.

Our readers are aware of the sad death of William Garth, of Bourbon county, by the late Lady Elgin disaster. His will was admitted to record on Saturday, in Paris.—After directing that his estate should be converted into money by the executor, he bequeaths to his wife fifteen thousand dollars; to his mother and each of his brothers and sisters (three of whom survive him) one thousand dollars; and to his executor, John Lucas, Esq, as commissioner for his services, five thousand dollars; and then makes the following munificent bequests to the city of Bourbon. We copy entire the clause of the will:

The entire balance of my estate, not herein disposed of, I wish to appropriate to the cause of education in the following manner, viz: So soon as my executor shall have paid off the before mentioned legacies, and has ascertained the balance in his hand of my estate, he shall cause to be published in the papers of the county of Bourbon the following proposition: If, in one year from this time, the citizens of Bourbon county will secure, by good subscription, the sum of one thousand dollars, (to be paid in reasonable time,) to be appropriated to the endowment of a college, to be located at Paris, Bourbon county, Kentucky, then he will immediately pay over to those who may be appointed trustees of the college, such before mentioned balance of my estate in his hands, (here specify the sum,) to be applied by said trustees to the endowment of a professorship of mathematics in said college.

If, at the expiration of one year from the date of this advertisement, the conditions therein are not complied with on the part of the citizens of Bourbon county, then I direct my executor to pay over such before mentioned balance of my estate in his hands to the Treasurer of the county of Bourbon, to be, by the Bourbon County Court, a majority of its justices being present, safely invested, in such a manner as they may deem best, and the interest on such investment they are to apply to the education of such poor worthy and sprightly young men of Bourbon county, as they may think most conducive to the public good, and in the distribution of the interest, as above directed, the court may pay for tuition, books, board and clothing, any one or all, as in their opinion may be deemed best.

I further direct that if any one or more of the beneficiaries of this will should not be living, or any child of such beneficiary, when it is presented to the court for record, that his, her or their legacies must be appropriated by my executor to the cause of education, in precisely the same manner as the balance of my estate was directed to be applied.

It is estimated that the amount which is thus nobly dedicated to the cause, in the foregoing devise, will be between fifty and sixty thousand dollars.

GOV. RANDALL'S APPOINTMENTS.—We are authorized to state that Gov. RANDALL will address the people on the political issues of the day at the following times and places:—Richland Centre, Friday, Oct. 12; Jefferson, Saturday, Oct. 13; Fox Lake, Monday, Oct. 15; Green Bay, Friday, Oct. 19; Appleton, Wednesday, Oct. 24; Menasha, Thursday, Oct. 25; Neenah, Thursday, Oct. 25.

Nicolls, of Boston; and Dr. Cox, of Cincinnati; and pronounced by them to be strictly pure, and an excellent stimulant in all cases where pure Brandies are indicated.

The manufacturer of this fine Brandy guarantees (if kept and the money) that it will cure

ROCK ME TO SLEEP.

There is a sentiment in the following lines which will find an echo in every breast against which the storm of life has beaten. Many a man, scarred in the warfare of passion and lust, will feel his eyes moisten in recalling the potency of a mother's love, when the world was not all against him:

Backward, turn backward, oh, Time in your flight,
Make me a child again just for to-night!
Mother, come back from the echoless shore,
Take me again to your heart as of yore—
Kiss from my forehead the furrows of care,
Smooth the few silver threads out of my hair,
O'er my slumbers your loving watch keep—
Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!

Backward, flow backward, oh, tide of the years!
I am so weary of toil and of tears—
Toil without recompense—tears all in vain—
Take them and give me my childhood again!
I have grown weary of dust and decay,
Weary of flinging my soul-wealth away—
Of weeping for others to ramp;—
Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!

Tired of the hollow, the base, the untrue,
Mother, oh mother, my heart calls for you!
Many a summer the grass has grown green,
Blossomed and faded—our faces between—
Yet with strong yearnings and passionate pain,
Long I to-night for your presence again;
Come from the silence so long and so deep—
Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!

Over my heart in the days that are flown
No love like mother-love ever has shown—
No other watch abides and endures,
Faithful, unselfish and patient like yours—
None like a mother can charm away pain
From the sick soul and world weary brain;
Slumber's soft calm o'er my heavy lids creep—
Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!

Mother, dear mother! the years have been long
Since I last listened to your lullaby song.
Sing, then, and unto my soul it shall seem
Womanhood's years have been only a dream;
Clasped to your heart in loving embrace,
With your light hair in fair silver waves on my face,
Never hereafter to wake or to weep,
Rock me to sleep, mother—rock me to sleep!

THE FEAR OF MAN.

BY REV. LEMUEL HOSVENGR.

THERE is a due and undue, a proper and improper fear of our fellow-men. He who is not at all afraid of losing his reputation or character, will soon have neither reputation nor character to lose. But it is the fear of doing right lest we should incur the displeasure of our fellows, that is dangerous—for if we once yield to this wrong impulse, it will be easier to yield again and yet again, till we are bolden as in a net, to do the deeds of this passion. Thus the child is led away from the path of rectitude to final ruin by his wicked playmates; the youth by his evil companions; the man in power and office by men whose principle is their interest.

The fear of man often leads men into the very trouble they wish to avoid. Aaron, in the absence of Moses, thought to still the clamors of the rebellious people by making a golden calf. He did this not to patronize idolatry, but to quiet agitation among the people, and thus save himself trouble; but his want of resolution in behalf of the right only increased his own discomfort, and cost Israel the lives of 3,000 men.

Jonah was afraid to prosecute that long journey to Nineveh, through a dangerous country, to preach an unwelcome doctrine to a wicked people, who, instead of listening to his message, would probably murder him. So he started off on a voyage to Tarshish, purposely to avoid danger, and the trouble of doing his duty. It is not necessary to comment on the incidents of his excursion, further than to say, that it added little to his comfort or health, and did not relieve him from the pain and trouble of doing what was required of him.

Peter had not the least intention of denying his master when he sneaked into the kitchen of the high priest—that was exactly what he wished to avoid; but his cowardly yet inquisitive behavior brought him into the dilemma that occasioned his pitiful apostacy. If he had gone boldly along in the footsteps of Jesus his master, he would have remained as unnoticed and unknown as any of the rabble, but as soon as he got into a close room, in the company of strangers, and eyes were naturally fixed upon him, and as soon as he op ned his mouth to answer an inevitable question, his dialect betrayed him.

The life of Pilate is an instance of the fatal danger of yielding to the fear of man against conviction of duty. Pilate had a conscience that told him it was wrong to murder the innocent, and he wished to save Jesus, if it could be done consistently with his own personal safety and the continuance of the honor and emoluments of office. Instead, therefore, of condemning him without a trial, as the priests and people supposed he would do, he demands first to know what accusation they brought against Jesus. "What matters it to specify any crime?" they answered; "of course he is a malefactor, else we should not have brought him to you for condemnation." "Very well," replied Pilate, "if he has offended against any of your Jewish laws, take and judge him yourselves—I want nothing to do with it." Pilate knew that he had it in his power to save Jesus, but he wished to do this and yet retain the good opinion of those he was sent to rule—he feared to do the merciful, benevolent, righteous act which conscience, reason, and God bade him perform, and thus he threw away the opportunity he had to save both himself and the innocent prisoner, for the enemies of Jesus were too keen not to see their advantage, and too artful to lack devices to compel the trembling governor to be the instrument of their wicked designs. They therefore charged Jesus with treason against the Roman Emperor, believing that as in ordinary cases of rebellion, the governor would give this criminal short shrift. But he meek face of the Lord sufficiently proved his innocence of such a crime, and his private explanation to Pilate confirmed it, so that the governor was nerved up to a stout and honest proclamation that he could find no fault in this man, on that score. "Oh," said the Jews, "it is in Galilee that you'll find plenty of evidence of his seditious character and if you let this traitor go on his own word, mercy, you are no friend of your imperial master. Ah, there was another deadly arrow in the heart of Pilate. "They will tell Cæsar, and then what will become of me? Though I know he is innocent, I dare not let him go; but I will send him to Herod, and thus I shall rid myself forever of this troublesome business." But Herod mockingly returned the prisoner to Pilate, and the weak, vacillating man was again disappointed, and again had the question brot up for his decision. "Shall I obey the voice of my conscience, or the demands of a bloodthirsty rabble?" He decided on the weakest of all shifts—a compromise. He would now throw the responsibility entirely on the people, by allowing them to choose between the villain Barabbas and the holy Jesus. Perhaps it was only a crucifixion they wanted to see, and the slaughter of the robber would satisfy their thirst of blood. Disappointed again in his hopes, he cries out in the agony of his spirit, "I will chastise him with the iron thonged scourge—that will be punishment enough for all he has done, and then I will let him go free." So he stripped and scourged the noble victim, and as the streams of blood ran down, cried out in pity, "Behold the man! Oh, blood-thirsty Jews, look on that scene of suffering, and go weeping and contrite to your homes, as I shall to mine!" But the wild shout rent the heavens, "Crucify him! crucify him! more blood we want—more blood we will have! Pilate, you must shed it, or we will take care that Cæsar shall shed yours!" Pilate had already yielded too often to be able any longer to resist. He sealed then and there his own eternal fate. He sealed, also, what seemed at that juncture more important to him—his own temporal destiny: for he had, by his vacillation, lost his popularity and paved the way to his own downfall. He hanged himself at last like Judas, and went to his own place.

The fear of God is the best safeguard against an improper fear of man. The power of a man armed with the fear of God is very striking, as illustrated in the history of our own country. Look on such a man, calm and resolute in the hour of difficulty—a Gibraltar, if you attempt to move him from the path of duty—a man to laugh at all opposing clamor, and to despise the strife of tongues—a man whom opposition affects only as the limestone waters affect the object on which they fall, casing and boxing it up in impenetrable hardness.

Look at J. Q. Adams in Congress, during the struggle of twenty-five years ago, for the Right of Petition. A Democratic member of the House (Judge Judson of Ct.) described one scene in that struggle as the "most sublime he ever witnessed in his life." Certain Southrons, irritated by the free speech of the old man, sprang out into the floor before him, with loud and wolfish yells of indignation, clenching their fists in his face, and allowing the muzzles of their revolvers and the handles of their Bowie-knives to be seen beautifully blossoming about their persons, and bidding the gray-haired veteran "sit down, and shut his mouth, and keep still from that time, henceforth, and for ever." One would think these gentlemen had hitherto been unacquainted with the old President! He did not leave them long in ignorance. Like a lion at bay, surrounded by wild cats, he stood for a moment awaiting their assault, and then, raising both arms, shouted, "Mr. Speaker! If the liberty of speech is to be crushed out on this floor, so help me God; it shall be done in my own person! right here! now!" And then he stood and fixed his eye on one of his enemies, and he slunk back to his seat—on another, and he too walked suddenly away—on another, and he was gone, till at length the veteran was left standing alone in his glory, to finish his fiery harangue when and how he pleased.

Adams was almost alone at that time. His own party durst not back him—his own friends would persuade him to cease this dangerous agitation, but conscientious determination kept him to his purpose, and with his own faculty of persistence, he plied Congress and the people with argument and eloquence, till the principle for which he contended gained a complete triumph, and not a man lives now who is silly enough to deny the right of petitioning Congress for any object whatever.

Look at Frank Blair, as he stood the other day at Hannibal, pleading anti-slavery principles in the face of a pro-slavery audience, amid a shower of eggs and stones. Who does not see that if he had shrunk craidly away, his cause would have been ruined? But as he stood firm at his post, who does not know that his courage gave force to his arguments, and produced conviction and conversion in all those of his hearers who had souls worth converting or converting? Look at Cassius Clay—for long years, amid swellings and tumults, in the face of lobster and assaults, standing up for freedom and right. It is his courage that has given him a name in the whole earth and a place on the brightest page of American history, when that page shall be written.

We shall always be exposed to a storm of prejudice, caprice, and passion from without; and unless something within enables us to brave all and endure all, we shall certainly be led away from duty, and lose all chance of usefulness in our day and generation. Let us be cautious of the courage, fortitude, and zeal of the great men we have mentioned, ready, if there come a season big with danger, to gird ourselves for the defense of the right, even in its last stronghold. Let the young determine to be ever faithful to their convictions. Let religious men and ministers stand up for Jesus, and in every company let it be known they are on the Lord's side. There is no peace to the wicked—there is still less peace to the timid and irresolute. Time is too short to allow any hesitation as to the path we ought to choose and to follow—too short, also, to allow any backsliding, after we have begun to walk in that path. Be thou faithful unto death, and take no step backward.

MONETARY.

WEDNESDAY P. M., October 10, 1860.

The banks all report Currency very close, to-day, the demands from their produce customers having been unusually heavy for the last three or four days, in consequence of the rather unexpectedly large movement of grain, and while the stringency lasts it is difficult to negotiate any description of paper except approved produce bills. The commission merchants have felt the pressure more perceptibly than any other class, most of them holding large amounts of grain upon which they have had to make advances. Many of our shippers, however, have a liberal supply of Currency at their disposal, and as soon as there are vessels enough in port to establish a reliable basis upon which to operate, we shall doubtless have an easier state of affairs in the money market. The banks sold Exchange at ¼ ⅌ cent, but it was sold on the street at a concession of ¼ ⅌ cent from the current rate. In consequence of the scarcity of currency the banks were not disposed to pay more than ¾ ⅌ cent for Exchange.

CHICAGO MONEY MARKET.

The Press & Tribune of this morning says:

The demand for exchange seems to be about equal to the supply. The price remains steady at 1 ⅌ cent premium. Some of the bankers report it easy while others say it is easier. Buying rate ¼ of 1 ⅌ cent premium. Gold buying ¾@1 ⅌ cent, selling 1¼@1½. Money for all legitimate business purposes abundant.

NEW YORK MONEY MATTERS.

We have the following by telegraph from New York to-day, in reference to money and stocks:

The receipts of wheat to-day, it will be seen, are considerably less than yesterday, amounting to 31,672 bus. The shipments were 113,050 bus. Grain freights, as was anticipated yesterday, advanced 2cts day, and this afternoon there were no vessels to be had even at the outside rates offered. In consequences of this the wheat market was very dull and unsettled, opening 1c lower than yesterday, and in the course of the day a further decline of 1c was established. The sales reported were inside of 40 000 bus at 90@92c for No 1 spring in store; 88@89c for No. 2; 92@93c for Club, and 94c for Extra—the market closing at 90c for No. 1 and 85c for No. 2. Holders were reluctant to concede to the decline in view of the advance of 1c at New York, and the improvement in the English markets reported by the Africa, but under the present scarcity of tonnage and unsettled state of freights, shippers had no disposition to risk the chances of lower rates than 15c to Buffalo, upon which basis they fixed their prices. The impression that the scarcity of currency at the banks was the cause of the dullness in the market is wrong. The shippers, we are fully warranted in saying have currency enough at their disposal to buy all the wheat we are now receiving, if they could do so safely. One buyer alone assured us that he had one hundred thousand dollars at his disposal any moment that he could purchase at prices that present rates of freight and Eastern quotations would justify. There was nothing whatever done in flour.

Freights were firm at an advance of 1@1½c in the morning, and the propeller Missouri and schooners Minna and S. Robinson were chartered to load for Buffalo at 1½c for wheat. Later, the schooner Ethan Allen was chartered at 1½c, and still later 1½c was offered, but there were no unengaged vessels in port. Shippers were in hopes that the change in the wind this afternoon would bring in a good deal.

In reference to the market the Press & Tribune says:

The receipts of wheat to-day amounted to 155,746 bus. The market, under an advance of 1@2c ⅌ bus on free lights, as well as heavy receipts ruled ½@1c lower. About 100,000 bus changed hands at 91c for Northwestern Club; 89@90c for No 1 spring; and 85¾@86¾c for No. 2 do—closing dull at the inside quotations. Flour was rather dull and medium grades declined 10@20c, with limited transactions at $4@4 90 for low grade to choice Spring extras, and $3,25@3,90 for spring superfine. Corn was dull and prices declined 1¾@2c, with sales of No. 2 Canal at 44c afloat; No. 1 at 42@43c; and No. 2 at 41@42c in store. Oats were firm and firm, with sales at 20@20½c for No.1 afloat. Rye firm at 58@58½c for No. 1 in store. Barley dull and 2@3c lower—sales being light at 45c for No. 2 in store, and 50c for No. 1 afloat. Provisions are firm at $13,00@13,50 for mess pork, and 9@11¾c for shoulders and sides.—The latter, however, are not much inquired for.

DETROIT MARKET.

Trade during the week has been quite active in both flour and wheat, with an improvement in prices. The trade in flour is confined almost wholly to red wheat brands, on which prices are 10@12½c better than a week ago. Sales are now made at $4,25@5,87½, mostly at the outside figure. The demand is very good. White wheat extras are steady at $5@5,25, and double extras at $5,25@5,50. Wheat has advanced 2@3c during the week, No. 1 being worth yesterday $1,10@1,10, and No. 1 red quiet at $1,10. The market was without much change either one way or the other until Friday, since which time it has improved full 4c. Corn is without much change, though holders are a trifle firmer. Oats are steady, holders asking 24c and buyers offering 23c. Butter is stationary at the range of last week, 12@18c for common to choice, though the latter is rather an outside figure for even the best lots. Eggs are in only moderate request.—Detroit Free Press, Monday.

Chicago Lumber Market.

TUESDAY EVENING, Oct. 6.

The following table shows the receipts of Lumber, Lath, Shingles, during the past week, and since January 1, with comparative statistics:

COMPARATIVE RECEIPTS OF LUMBER, &C.

LUMBER—The receipts of lumber during the last week amounted to 10,189,755 feet. During the corresponding week in 1859 the receipts were 6,345,500 feet.

The market during the week was unusually active, both for cargoes and in the yards. A large number of country dealers availed themselves of the half fare on the various railroads, and came hither to replenish their stocks. From various dealers we learn that the business was more than double that of the "Fair week," about this time last year, and that the feeling among country merchants was much more hopeful than it has been for several years past.

There is a good inquiry for boards, joists and scantling, but the principal inquiry seems to be for lathing, to meet corn cribs. The immense corn crop to be gathered will probably cause the demand for this kind of lumber to be active all winter.

From all quarters there is complaint of the scarcity of dry boards. The dull state of the trade for the past two years has discouraged dealers from piling boards for seasoning to the same extent as hitherto, and we are now beginning to feel the effects of it. Dry uppers are in especial request for the St. Louis and Missouri River trade; but there is also a good inquiry for cleary from all parts of this State, as well as from Iowa. The return of more prosperous times has caused a demand for better grades of lumber, as well as for carrying sizes.

We have no change to note in yard prices Some dealers a week or two days ago were disposed to advance their figures; but it had only a tendency to revive somewhat the old spirit. Mixed lots of all sorts of common lumber have been selling freely at $10,00 per thousand feet. Common boards and fencing are selling steady at $12,00, and twelve feet stuff at $12,00@13,00.

The country dealers bought cargoes more freely during the week, at about former prices. The good supply prevented any upward tendency. Common mixed cargoes were sold at $9,75@10,50, and good to prime at $10,00@12,00.

SHINGLES—The demand for shingles continues active and the market is firm. Several cargoes of fair A 1 shingles were sold during the week at $2,70@3,00 (Chicago Inspection) Inferior and mixed lots are held at $2,25@2,50. Yesterday a dealer sold 100,000 of this quality on the dock at $2,50. Good sawed shingles are in demand at $2,75, and some kinds sell in the Yards at $3,00@3,25.

LATH—The stock of laths is unusually light, and the market is very firm at the recent advance. Some dock loads were sold in the early part of the week at $2,00@2,10 ⅌ m boat; and 300,000 were sold to arrive per brig Minnesota, at $2,10@2,15. The price in the Yards is $2,25@2,50.—Press & Tribune.
